The group has over 110 employees. We pride ourselves on running innovative events for our customers which number over 1000 per year. The business plans growth in the coming years. The company has a passionate Board, with a record of success in the hospitality and event sector. We are seeking a like-minded experienced General Manager to lead the team at biggest and busiest site the Queen of Hoxton.

The Role, Key Responsibilities & Experience

An experienced General Manager is required to join our team of lively creative talent. You need to be a strong leader, keep cool under pressure and be confident in your decision-making processes. You'll be heading up a large team so exceptional people skills and diplomacy are a must. You should have the natural ability to motivate and engage a team, implement operating systems and deliver consistency of service whilst managing all compliance procedures. You will need to multi task between food service, people management, financials and strategy, whilst working with the Creative Team to create an experience our customers will never forget. We are looking for a Front of House General Manager, with a creative flair and a solid understanding of the events business and the financial aspects of operating a busy venue. This is an exciting and varied role for an energetic individual.

The Queen of Hoxton is a three-floored bar and event venue including a famous 250-capacity rooftop. We expect the ideal candidate will have at least 2 years' experience as a General Manager in a similar sized business, with experience in managing budgets and P & L performance. You will be accountable for the training and development of your team, so experience in this area is highly desirable. You will be a creative, sociable individual with unrivalled positivity and bags of energy. Passion and enthusiasm for exceptional service and all things event related are essential.
